Director

BOB MACKAY is the principal of RAMentor Strategic Consulting and provides strategic planning advice to companies in their business dealings with governments and the petroleum sector.

Prior to his retirement in 2004 from the public service of the Province of Nova Scotia, Bob MacKay held a number of senior executive positions in the government of Nova Scotia, the most recent of which were Senior Advisor to the Premier and as Chief Executive Officer of the Office of Economic Development.

During the 1990's, Mr. MacKay served as Deputy Minister for the Technology and Science Secretariat, Intergovernmental Affairs, Priorities and Planning Secretariat and dual roles as Premier's Deputy and Secretary to the Executive Council.

Prior to joining the provincial government, Mr. MacKay was a business management consultant specializing in the energy sector. His consultancy business followed 11 years with Petro-Canada where he had operational responsibility for the company's activities in the Maritimes and provided staff support for undertakings throughout Atlantic Canada.

Since 2009, Mr. MacKay has been the chairperson of the Transitional Board, Nova Scotia Agricultural College (NSAC), who's task is to develop a new governance model for NSAC as it ceases to be part of a Provincial Government Department.
