

Biography: Mr. Carey Ryan, OERA

Carey Ryan is a professional engineer with a Masters in Business Administration whose career has spanned more than 40 years in the public, private and not-for-profit sectors. He has served in a number of senior positions in the government of Nova Scotia including Assistant Deputy Minister of Energy and Executive Director of the Nova Scotia Petroleum Directorate, and prior to that was Director of Energy Management with responsibility for the Province's activities related to renewable energy technologies and energy conservation. Following his retirement from the provincial government he was Vice President, Treasurer and Acting President of Petroleum Research Atlantic Canada (PRAC). He has been a member of the Canada Nova Scotia Offshore Petroleum Board; the Board of Nova Scotia Resources Limited; was a member of and chaired the Nova Scotia Energy and Mineral Resources Conservation Board; was a member of the Board of the Nova Scotia Tidal Power Corporation; and acted as Canadian co-chair of the Northeast International Committee on Energy. He is currently provides energy related consulting services through his company Thackeray Consulting, is a partner in Novus Consulting and is the Business Development Manager with the Offshore Energy Research Association of Nova Scotia.