

“Stretching from Land to Sea”

Biography: Mr. Steve Rankin, Maritimes & Northeast Pipeline

Stephen Rankin is the Director of External Relations at Maritimes & Northeast Pipeline L.P. (M&NP), based in the company’s head office in Halifax, NS. Steve works on M&NP’s behalf with federal, provincial, municipal and First Nation governments, and acts as the company’s spokesman in Canada.

Steve plays an active role in the community both professionally and personally through the delivery of M&NP’s community investment program and through involvement in community organizations such as the United Way, Nova Scotia Community College, and the Discovery Centre.

Steve has 20 years of experience in marketing and communications in the energy industry, manufacturing and consumer goods. He is married with four children and lives in Halifax, Nova Scotia.