BP in Canada: Nova Scotia Offshore

BP Canada Energy Group ULC focuses on developing energy from Canada’s oil sands, located in northeastern Alberta. Tapping our vast experience in producing oil and gas from reservoirs in challenging environments, BP in Canada is also pursuing offshore opportunities in frontier areas such as the Arctic and Nova Scotia. Our integrated supply and trading business spans the country and makes BP one of the top oil and natural gas marketers and traders in Canada. Based in Calgary, Alberta, we currently employ about 400.
